Osrs big chompy bird hunting guide

Old School RuneScape Wiki from Big Chong Pi Bird Hunting is a quest that helps rantz demons catch Chonpi birds in order for him to feed his children. Details [Edit > Edit Source] tutorial [Edit > Edit Source] Quest Start Point. Talk to Lanz. He is located southeast of Gutanotto. Some ways to reach him include using a norm glider (only after completed a small favor), Ferdip Hills Te report trading with other players, Nightmare Zone Mini-Game Group Finder, or Fairy Ring System (AKS). Lanz is hungry and wants to help him make an arrow for his unusually big bow, so he can hunt Chonpie birds. Like other arrows, oni arrows require feathers, shafts, and tips. Note: Oni arrows must be created from the bottom. Otherwise, Rantz will not accept them. Make Arrow Chips [Edit > Edit Source] You need to start the quest before you have the ability to make arrow chips. Kill some wolves (level 64) in the crater to the southwest of Lantz for wolf bones. (You can find it safely standing near the roots in the northeast of the swamp.) Use the nomi on the wolf bone to create the tip of the arrow. Note: When you sell a wolf bone to Chi, you'll see a random amount of arrows (estimated 2 to 6). Make a shaft [Edit > Edit Source] Cut down some Achey Trees nearby for the Achey tree log (about 5 logs are required - Rantz himself wants six arrows and you'll probably want some of your own). Use a knife in the log to generate some arrow shafts. Make arrows [Edit > Edit Source] Cave [Edit > Edit Source] Return to The Lands and give him an arrow. Then he will tell you about the swamp toads that his children like to play with. Ask all the questions listed in Rantz, or otherwise you won't be allowed to open your chest later. Enter the entrance of the cave north of Lanz. Talk to the children of Lanz in the cave. They will let you know that Rantz has locked the ogre's bellows on the chest (if you plan to do a recipe for part I and/or disaster at the end of mourning, keep the bellows). The chest is closed and closed with a large rock. Try to unlock the chest. If you fail, your strength will decrease by one. Search the chest to find the belly (may search immediately or lock again). Fill the inflatable toad [Edit > Edit Source] bellows and use it for toads. We went back to the southwest of Lanz, where we found a wolf. They surround the swamp. (See the first diagram of the tutorial.) Use bellows on top of the swamp bubbles at the southern end of the swamp pond. Get 3 shots with gas-filled bellows before it needs to be filled again. Use toad bellows again to get bloasted toads and you'll catch it and put it in your inventory. Get three toads. Chonpi and hunt [Edit > Source] Return to Lands and talk to him. He will show you where you need to place toads to attract Chonpie birds. Drop ONE toad on the spot (yellow flashing arrow marks it) and then walkTo The Lands. Don't stay close to the bait, but make sure it's within lying range. Occasionally, the lure fails and the bait disappears. In this case, drop another toad. Landz would shoot it, but he would miss it. He will complain that the arrow will not be blown straight. Talk to Ranz and offer to help shoot for him. He'll agree and give you his ogre's bow. (If you get the bow early, you can kill the already born Chonpi Bird.) Demon bows and comp ogre bows are used during recipes for disasters, so if you're planning to do that quest too, make sure you hold on to either.) Return to clearing and place another toad (it doesn't have to be on the exact tile shown first). Swing the bow and arrow and range it when the bird appears. If the bird does not appear, or if you want to fly away before killing it, place the bloasted toad and reintrodu the chonpie. After killing Chonpi, he picks out the body and returns the raw Chongpie to The Lands. He now wants you to cook it too. (Note: You have to kill Chonpi by yourself.) You can't buy raw Chongpie. Cooking Chonpi Bird [Edit > Edit Source] Rantz names the special ingredients he wants to cook birds. He will also tell you to ask the kids what they want seasoned birds. Go to the cave and ask the two demon children what Chonpi wants to season. Overall, you will need three different ingredients, but only birds. It depends on the player what the demon wants from Chonpi, but here's a simple list of places to get it all. Onion: A little to the southwest, there is a fire near where you will find tomatoes. Onions grow near tomatoes. Right-click on the grass buds and pick them. If you want to get onion seeds instead of onions, choose a different bud. Doogle Leaves: To the west, on the way to the glider. Equer Leaves: You can get this southeast of Lanz. Tomatoes: Southwest of Lanz, near oni. on the stool. Potatoes: a little southeast of the lantz (same area as Equileaf). You need to choose from potato plants. Cabbage: southwest of Lanz, north of tomatoes and onions. Use the bird to spit north of the lantz while holding all three ingredients. Present his deliciously seasoned Chongpie birds and lantz. Reward [Edit > Edit Source] Music Unlock [Edit > Edit Source] Required to complete [Edit > Edit Source] Trivia [Edit > Edit Source] When Rantz misses a bird, he blames the arrow instead of the sticker. This quick guide from Old School RuneScape Wiki<Big ChongPie Bird Hunting has a detailed guide here. Includes a detailed description of the dialogue, cut scene, and story. Talk to the Lanz Northeast (Fairy Ring aks) in Ferdip Hills. (3) Note: You need to advance the arrow yourself. Talk to Ranz. Drop the bloasted toad where the arrow points. After a while, the arrow disappears and this happens, and youThe solution to spawn Chongpie birds is to get three or more bloasted toads and place them in a clearing. Talk to Ranz again for The Chongpie bird that appears after The Landz fires the bow and talk to him to receive the auger's bow. If you are fast enough, You can try to kill chonpie birds that Rantz tried to hunt. Otherwise, place another toad in the clearing. Kill Chonpi's bird that appears with the demon's bow. They pick a corpse and take a raw chongpie Talk to Ranz. Go back to the cave and talk to Fycie and Bugs. Get the ingredients they asked for. The images on this page show you where they are. Use raw chonpie for a spit roast (fire outside the cave) north of The Lands. Talk to Ranz. Quest Completion!
